CITY NEWS.

—The souvenirs at Robinson's Museum tomorrow will be distributed by Mr. Eugene Robinson in person.
—A considerable amount of bituminous concrete has been put down in the city, on walks, alleys and cellars.
—The Amateur Athletic Association will give a reception at their rooms to members and lady friends on Friday, the 22d instant.
—All members of Branch No. 35, Catholic Knights of America, are requested to meet at their hall this morning at 10 o'clock.
—A meeting of the Irish Literary Association is called for tomorrow evening. All the members are requested to be present.
—The Tobagan this afternoon and evening. Passengers make the round trip without getting off the cars. If the weather is fine no doubt another Sunday's fun awaits those who attend.
—Joan Westworth, a novel by Macquid, 7th Tennessee, by Forrest, 1st Tennessee, and Sunday Magazine for November, with all the late papers for the week, at Mansford's.
—William Bath, who killed John Kelly with a wooden mallet, on Front street not long ago, was found guilty of murder yesterday and sentenced by the jury to twenty years in the penitentiary.
—Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to the following parties, all colored: Wm. Taylor and Miss Lula Phipps; Harry Mitchell and Miss Mattie Grady; James Snellins and Mrs. Sue Williams; D. C. Thatcher and Mrs. Lavonia Francis; Henry Brooks and Miss Victoria Allen.
—George Batup, a switchman of the Memphis and Little Rock Railroad Company, was run over by a coal train Friday night at Hopefield, the cars passing over the middle of his body and cutting him almost in two. He died in an agony about an hour and a half after the occurrence.
—Mr. Wm. Watts, an employee of the Thompson-Houston Electric Light Company, was attacked last night in the alley back of Hollenberg's music store by a negro, who cut him with a knife across the abdomen and took to his heels. Watts' heavy clothing was cut through and through, but he escaped uninjured.
—A charter was filed in the Register's office yesterday, by the Benevolent Mount Zion Society No. 1, to be located at White Haven, Wyatt Bell, Wyatt Deedman and Frank Robertson, all colored, and corporation for the purpose, viz., to take care of the sick and bury the dead of the society.
—In our telegraphic columns will be found an account of a trunk containing twenty emeralds valued at $300 that went as far as St. Louis, and was shipped to this city. The trunk was recovered yesterday by Capt. O'Haver and Detective Pryde at the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, and a man who gave his name as John E. Gorman, who held the check for the trunk was arrested. He declined any knowledge of the contents of the trunk, and said the baggage master at St. Louis had erroneously turned it over to St. Louis and Gorman, after consultation with the police of St. Louis, released from custody.

—Several colored business men of Memphis held a meeting last night in the rear of J. T. Turner & Co.'s grocery store, No. 155 Beale street, to take under consideration the organization of a protective union among themselves. The Hon. J. F. Norris was made temporary chairman and J. T. Turner temporary secretary. After stating the object of the meeting and hearing remarks from the different ones present, the following Committee on Organization, Bylaws and Rules was appointed: Dr. Geo. W. Bryant, T. F. Cassels, J. T. Turner, J. H. Hodges and C. W. Perry, to report at next meeting. T. F. Cassels, the Rev. A. L. Hall and D. L. F. Banks were appointed as a Committee on Hall. The meeting then adjourned to meet at 1 P. M. Norris's grocery store, No. 124 Beale street, at the call of the Chair.

PERSONAL.

EMILE LEVY will hereafter reside at Calvary Church organ.
EMILE LEVY and family returned from New York yesterday.
Messrs. E. V. AND RICHARD GARAY have returned from Cincinnati.
Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Ida Lee Ellis and Mr. T. E. Norman, Thursday, October 21st.
Miss CYNTHIA LATTING, after an absence of five months in Nevada and California, where she visited relatives and friends, has returned to her home on Exchange street.
Mrs. A. M. SHOOK, of Tracy City, Mo., left Memphis yesterday for St. Louis, Mo., to visit her mother, Mrs. W. S. Abner, of this city, leave Monday morning, via Kansas City, for Minneapolis, Minn., as delegates to the National Convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union.
Mrs. FLORENCE FINLEY MOORE has arrived in this city with all the latest society dances, and on next Saturday afternoon, October 23d, at 5 o'clock, will be her opening and reception day at the Young Men's Hebrew Association Hall, corner Second and Union streets. The people of Memphis are cordially invited to be present.
A FAVORABLE wedding will take place at the First Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evening next, at 8:30 o'clock, Miss Florence Lattling, daughter of R. G. Lattling, will be united in marriage to Mr. Will F. Merrin, of Plant City, Fla. The many friends of the young lady will regret very much to learn that she is to leave Memphis, but will console themselves with the thought that in Mr. Merrin she gains a husband in every way worthy of so charming a bride.
Mrs. J. W. NELSON writes from Salt Lake City that she will return to Memphis in a few days and can be found at her studio, No. 62 Madison street, ready to serve the public. She remained in California a considerable time, passed the heated term at Soda Springs, Idaho, and has been giving attention to the beautiful scenery of California and other portions of the Pacific slope. She has been doing just what American artists ought to do—painting pictures of the grand scenery of their own country.

—BLOWERS & BROS.' dress making department, organized but a short time ago, has already met with great success. This department is under the supervision of Mrs. Rousseau, late of Paris and New York, who is now ready to take all orders for tailor made costumes, traveling and street dresses, and the most elegant dinner and reception dresses. Perfect satisfaction is guaranteed in all the details that are absolutely necessary to produce a model of skilled workmanship and refined taste.
—Miss BLANCH CLARK, of Clarkedale, Miss., is at the Peabody. After spending the summer in Worcester, Mass., at the home of her schoolmate, Miss Agnes M. Fanning, she returns South still radiant in her beauty, intelligence and the graceful charms which make her a favorite wherever she is known. Miss Blanch is accompanied by her friend, Miss Agnes M. Fanning, of Worcester, Mass., who will spend a part of the winter in the South. This is Miss Fanning's first visit to the land of orange leaves and magnolia blossoms, and she will be cordially welcomed, for she is a young lady of bright intellect, charmingly easy and graceful in her manners—a typical representative of the fashion, wealth and intelligence of the great State from which she hails. It is hoped her visit South will be one of unalloyed pleasure to herself, as it certainly will be to all who make her acquaintance.
